

Dual prize winner in NSW

Lynette Williams, of Parramatta City Library, won the TAFE State Medal and the S&M prize for the highest mark of a graduating student in the Diploma of Arts (Library Practice) Course. Here she receives congratulations from S&M Supply Company Director Beresford Bluett.

VALA AWARD

The VALA Award, made biennially, is presented to the Australian library or information centre judged to have made the most innovative use of currently available information technology during the previous two years.

Nominations are now invited for the 1994 Award for systems installed between January 1992 and December 1993 inclusive.

All libraries and information centres in Australia are eligible for nomination by staff, users or other interested persons.

Guidelines and nomination forms can be obtained from:

VALA TRAVEL SCHOLARSHIP CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Every two years VALA offers its Travel Scholarship to enable a suitable person to travel overseas to examine aspects of library automation. Candidates proposing to study newer technologies of potential application in Australia but not yet seen here are most likely to be successful. No formal qualifications are required. Although candidates should be working in library or information related areas, they need not be employed in traditional library environments.

The successful candidate will receive $10,000 towards travel, accommodation and living expenses. The successful candidate must complete the study by November 1995, and present a paper at the 8th VALA Biennial National Conference in January 1996.

Closing date for applications: 31 August 1994. Application forms and more details available from: The Secretary, VALA, 123 Dover Street, RICHMOND VIC 3121
