ALIA Library Manager of the Year award presented at the Qld Branch AGM

University of Queensland librarian and joint winner of the ALIA Library Manager of the Year award, Janine Schmidt, was presented with her award at the ALIA Queensland Branch AGM at the State Library of Queensland on 6 December by ALIA President Mairéad Browne.

Janine has developed teaching partnerships between the library and the graduate medical course and the departments of engineering and social work. She has extended the library's programs beyond the University, in the Cyberschool program and the development of electronic information products and services, such as the QUICK interactive internet training package and Pathways, an internet training service. ■

ulrichsweb.com™

Introducing Web access to the most comprehensive serials database the world has ever known: Ulrich's™ International Periodicals Directory at www.ulrichsweb.com.

It's all here — detailed profiles of nearly 250,000 consumer magazines, academic journals, professional monographs, newspapers, electronic publications, conference proceedings, 'zines, and other serials — with thousands of new titles, cessations, and revisions added to the database throughout the year. You'll also find over 8,000 magazine reviews from Library Journal and Magazines for Libraries.

ulrichsweb.com couples this extraordinary range of data with powerful searching capabilities. Its robust search engine lets you easily pinpoint specific journals in Quick Search or Browse modes, or conduct broad-based subject or publisher surveys by blending up to 24 different criteria — including publisher, editor, subject, format, document type, refereed status, keyword, and others.

What's more, ulrichsweb.com features hotlinks with many of the 80,000 commercial, academic, and professional distributors and publishers in 200 countries around the world. These links will soon constitute the largest e-mail and URL directory of serial publishers in the world.

QUICK SEARCH

The fast, easy way to find serials, the form-based Quick Search can be accessed from most screens and allows you to select records by Title, ISSN, Keyword, or Subject.

A separate BROWSE MODE also lets you scan each of the 24 search categories using a keyword-based "Quick Find" feature.

ADVANCED SEARCH

Combine multiple criteria in a single search. Click the index bars to view the lists of available search terms, which can be further limited by Circulation, Price, and Publication Year.

Ulrich's International Periodicals Directory on the Web is available for a free, 14 day evaluation. It is also available in hardback and on CD-Rom.
