Have you lodged your CPD record sheet yet?

The deadline for submitting completed CPD records for the 2000/2001 reporting period, is Friday 28 September, giving members a two-month period of grace. To be fair to members who submitted their forms before the initial deadline of 31 July, we must impose this final deadline, after which CPD record sheets will no longer be accepted. Any member who fails to meet this deadline will be deemed not to have successfully satisfied the requirements for the scheme, and will be required to rejoin the scheme if they wish to participate.

After 28 September, all members who have lodged their record sheets will be contacted to acknowledge receipt of their documents and confirm their compliance with the scheme.

If you are having problems recording your CPD activities, please do not hesitate to contact ALIA National Office for assistance. E-mails can be sent to cpd@alia.org.au.
