

Introducing ALIA's local liaison officers

In the August issue of inCite we introduced the first ALIA local liaison officer, Kay Poustie, ph 08 9382 1261, kay.poustie@alia.org.au, [inCite August, p33]. We are now pleased to introduce three more local liaison officers: Gillian Hallam (Queensland), Jane Jeppson (Tasmania) and Margie Anderson (Victoria).

Gillian Hallam

ph 07 3864 2177 or 0402 159 818, gillian.hallam@alia.org.au

Gillian Hallam is currently a lecturer in the Graduate Diploma in Library and Information Studies course at the Queensland University of Technology (QUT). Prior to joining QUT, she worked for many years as a corporate librarian in the business and legal information sectors.

Gillian's work is underpinned by her holistic philosophy of teaching and learning, reflected in her interest in generic capabilities for information professionals and the development of professional portfolios to support career development. She has received research grants and teaching awards for her work in this area and has presented papers at a number of LIS and teaching and learning conferences, both nationally and internationally.

Gillian is currently convenor of the ALIA Quorum committee and the ALIA Quill editorial committee, as well as being an active committee member with the QUT/ALIA Queensland Student Mentoring Program and a member of the program committee for the ALIA 2004 Biennial Conference.

Margie Anderson

ph 03 9315 3522, margie.anderson@alia.org.au

Margie is web manager for the library and records management recruitment specialists, The One Umbrella. Margie has a strong interest in career management, professional education and CPD. She has been a regular conference presenter on these topics.

Margie combines her web work with teaching library technicians at Victoria University. Her background in the information industry includes training and sales for a leading computer company providing services to the information industry, as well as working in public, special and school libraries.

Margie has been a strong supporter of ALIA in Victoria. She was state president for several years and has been involved with many ALIA committees and projects.

Jane Jeppson

ph 03 6231 9511, jane.jeppson@alia.org.au

Jane commenced her career in the State Library of Tasmania in 1979 and since that time has worked in a wide variety of positions in public, special and health libraries.

In 1997, she left the Department of Community and Health Services where she was the manager of Library Services to pursue what has turned out to be an very eventful and varied career as a library consultant.

Jane commenced as ALIA's Tasmanian local presence officer in September 1998, and subsequently became ALIA Tasmania's Group administrative support officer. She is the current secretary/treasurer of ALIA Tasmania. ■
