

Who's where

Recent movements in the library and information sector

ALIA appoints new LLOs

ALIA announces two new local liaison officers. In South Australia, Fiona Butcher has accepted the appointment. Fiona comes to Adelaide from Sydney, where she managed the Australian Tax Office Library. She began work in mid-May. In NSW, Niki Kallenberger has been appointed. Niki recently retired from full-time work, her last position was manager, education and training at the State Library of New South Wales. She will be available as LLO from 1 July.

Bond University library appointments

Christopher Curtis has been appointed to the new position of customer services co-ordinator, managing lending and document delivery services; he comes to Bond from the University of New England. Michael Wallace is the new liaison librarian at the Faculty of Business, Technology and Sustainable Development. He was formerly employed at Central Queensland University.

Queensland University library changes

From 15 May 2006, Heather Gordon will be director of information services and university librarian, James Cook University. Her previous position was at the University of the Sunshine Coast, where Sharon Lenord is now acting director of information services. Ms Katrina Valse has stepped down as acting university librarian at James Cook.

New CEO at Yarra-Melbourne Regional Library

Yarra-Melbourne Regional Library Corporation has appointed Julie Rae as the new CEO. She will be starting in mid-June. She leaves the position of chief executive officer, Central Highlands Regional Library Corporation, which she has held since 2002.

New director of Public Library Services at SLQ

Tania Paull has been appointed director of Public Library Services, State Library of Queensland. She will start work there in early July. She'll be moving from Adelaide, where she is head of Public Library Services, State Library of SA (formerly PLAIN).

Vision Australia

Susan Bray has taken up the position of national manager of the Information and Library Service at Vision Australia, in Melbourne. Her previous post was at the University of Melbourne.

New president and CEO at Bowker

A seasoned executive who has successfully led a number of business-to-business media companies, Annie Callanan, has been named president and chief executive officer of Bowker. She replaces Michael Cairns, who stepped down as president of Bowker in January.

Elsevier expands web strategy group

Elsevier has appointed Scott Virkler to be responsible for the overall development and execution of its strategy in the fast-growing multi-billion dollar internet Search marketplace. Virkler was previously with GlobalSpec, a leader in vertical search, and is joining Elsevier as vice-president of Web Strategy and Business Development. ■

ALI Appointments

<http://alia.org.au/employment/vacancies.html>

WORK WANTED

Part-time or casual work in a library

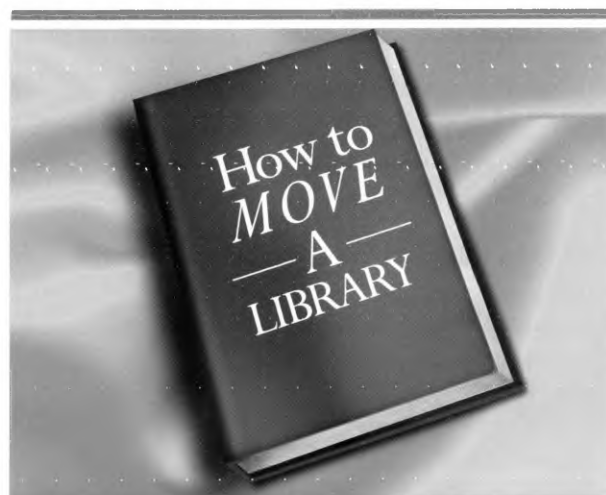

I am a cheerful person with a genuine love of books and research skills developed during tertiary studies.

I have outstanding communication, customer service, and teamwork skills. I have a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Sydney and am working towards a postgraduate qualification in library/information science.

Any opportunity to gain experience in a library setting within Sydney would be greatly appreciated.

E-mail zwri@hotmail.com to discuss further.

Don Z Wright

We wrote the book

At Chess we have the industry expertise and the specialist equipment to make your next library move fast, simple, secure, and 100% reliable.

- Fully enclosed trolleys safeguard against loss
- Fixed height shelving prevents damage to books
- Rapid access contents during transport if required
- Efficient relocation and reinstallation
- Sequentially numbered trolleys preserve your library numbering system.

Phone Australia wide
13 14 69
Branches Australia wide

Chess

ADJUNKALS WIL 212922