

Who's where

Recent movements in the library and information sector

Movements at ALIA National Office

Robyn Ellard has been appointed as the ALIA Groups Liaison Officer (see page 33).

Kamara Schlegal joins ALIA as Executive Support whilst Mary Ann Ryan is on three months leave.

A 35-year career

Recently retired library officer Marion Bamgarten worked for 35 years at the Blayney Shire Library in western NSW, and for 15 years before that with the Lyndhurst Shire Council, Blayney's precursor. Central West Libraries will miss her extensive knowledge of the community and its history.

New liaison librarians at CQU

Central Queensland University recently appointed Jennifer Doak as Education liaison librarian. Kate Houston and Libby Blanchard will jobshare the Research liaison librarian position.

UNSW Information Services

Previously Director, Information Resources, Lyn Bosanquet has been appointed Director, Information Services, at the University of NSW Library. She had been acting in the position prior to her appointment.

Collection Services at Vision Australia

Deborah Mould is the new Collection Services Manager at Vision Australia Information and Library Service. Coming from a background in technical services in the university sector, and customer services through project work with public, government and corporate libraries. She will effectively combine her knowledge of collections, cataloguing and library management systems to serve the needs of the print disabled community. Deborah has been with Vision Australia since 2002.

Library Manager at Darwin City Council

Karen Conway is the newly appointed Manager Library Services at Darwin City Council Libraries. Karen starts in the position on 11 September 2006.

Library and Records

Management at APVMA

Michelle Woodcroft is replacing from Judith Wood as Manager, Information Services at the APVMA (Australian Pesticides and Veterinary Medicine Authority) for one year while Judith is on leave. Michelle is on secondment from the Therapeutic Goods Administration Library and has a background in university and special libraries.

Expanded team at DA

Jeanette Regan has accepted a collection development position with the Collection Services team at DA Information in Mitcham, Victoria.

New Regional

Sales Manager at ProQuest

ProQuest is pleased to announce the appointment of David Sidebottom as Regional Sales Manager. Reporting to Julie Stevens, David will be based in the Sydney office and will manage the sales team and activities supporting the Australia and New Zealand market place. David comes to ProQuest from senior roles at Faxon, Swets and SilverPlatter in Europe. Proquest are sure David will contribute significantly to customer services, and looks forward to introducing him to all their business partners over the next few months.

ALIA's PD partner

Institute of Public Administration Australia, NSW Division [IPAA NSW]

Special rates for ALIA members

IPAA NSW is the professional association for people interested in government reform, policy issues, trends, best practice and innovation in public sector management. As a leading training provider to the NSW public sector, the Institute is recognised for its outstanding service and delivery of relevant, high quality, cost effective learning and development programs. For ease of reference courses from the 2006 program are grouped into the following key subject areas:

- Strategic management in the public sector
- Public policy and procedures
- Financial management
- Project management
- Procurement and contract management
- Leading and developing people
- Workplace communication
- Writing for the public sector

For more information please visit the IPAA website [<http://www.nsw.ipaa.org.au/>], e-mail info@nsw.ipaa.org.au or ph 02 9228 5225.

To find out more about ALIA's PD partners, please visit <http://alia.org.au/education/pd/services.html>. For ALIA's PD scheme, contact Jill Yvanovich by e-mail pd@alia.org.au or ph 02 6215 8258. *

MOVERS AND SHAKERS

BUSINESS RELOCATIONS

Making all the right moves

Specialists in Library/Archive Relocations

Movers and Shakers are an independently owned national relocation company with a professional advisory planning strategy service for library relocations.

Using state-of-the-art extruded plastic relocation trolleys which are:

- fully enclosed
- weather-proof for external relocations
- fitted with adjustable shelves to suit all size materials.

1300 136 681

- Adelaide • Brisbane • Canberra • Melbourne • Newcastle • Perth • Sydney •

MOVERS SHAKERS®
BUSINESS RELOCATIONS

www.moversandshakers.com.au