SEVENTH ANNUAL NATIONAL

ADVISORY CONGRESS COMING SOON

This year's National Advisory Congress Meeting (NAC) is now in the planning stages and we will shortly be announcing the topic and schedule of meetings for 2011.

This will be the seventh NAC, our annual opportunity to capture and record successes and discuss the issues around a key theme related to ALIA's activities in policy and planning. This is your chance to find out more about what's been happening on your behalf and have your say about what should happen next.

The National Advisory Congress is open to all current personal and institutional members and includes a calendar of regional meetings in capital cities plus teleconferences to give as many members as possible the opportunity to participate.

Wherever possible, the regional meetings are facilitated by an ALIA Board member with support from a member of the National Office staff, and each meeting will elect a delegate to report their discussions to the national meeting, conducted by teleconference, where they will be joined by invited self-nominating groups and advisory committee members.

NAC meetings in the past have informed the development of key sections of the Association's strategic plan and activity in advocacy, professional development and more. These meetings are your ticket to ponder the really big questions and contribute to how we plan for the future - and how we deal practically with the present.

Watch inCite, aliaNEWS and our Facebook and Twitter announcements for more details shortly, and plan now to be part of your own future by being at your regional NAC meeting.

For more information, contact Membership Services at ALIA on (02) 6215 8222 or 1800 020 071 or email enquiry@alia.org.au
