

CSI LIBRARY

Lots of good 'stuff' happened at Bendigo TAFE Library during Library and Information Week 2011. Fictional characters and people who "find stuff" including Hercule Poirot, Sherlock Holmes, Phryne Fisher, Miss Marple, Nancy Drew, Stephanie Plum, Inspector Gadget, Columbo, Ellery Queen, Temperance Brennan, Katia Martelli, Trixie Belden, a Geocacher, Police officer and a twitcher were 'spied' at the Biggest Morning Tea.

Guests were fingerprinted and photographed upon arrival after which they were invited to enter a 'Guess the character' competition to win a mystery prize pack. Students solved a crossword puzzle to win another mystery prize and good 'stuff' to eat was found for breakfast shared with library colleagues from the Heyward Library at La Trobe University. The Bendigo TAFE Library foyer became a private investigator's office and footprints and body outlines were discovered on the library floor. The opening of a new library building at our Charleston Road campus was also celebrated during Library and Information Week.

Narelle Stone

Technical Services Librarian
Bendigo TAFE
nstone@britafe.vic.edu.au

Body in the library

Phryne Fisher and Hercule Poirot consider the evidence

Was it Colonel Mustard with the candlestick? Bendigo TAFE found some mystery stuff for LIW

From Miss Marple to Phryne Fisher, Bendigo TAFE LIW 2011

SA SHOWS OFF THEIR SMARTS FOR LIW

The ALIA South Australian quiz night for 2011 was organised and run for the first time by the South Australian Library Technicians committee (SALT). The night was a great success with lots of fun and prizes shared. Significant intelligence was demonstrated by everyone who attended, with the scores being high and close for most of the night. With the theme for the evening being that of Library and Information Week - "we find stuff" - many people dressed up as and decorated their tables in the theme of Where's Wally and pirates. Special thanks to our major sponsor, Civica, and our many other sponsors and supporters on the night for making it all possible.

Rani Thompson

Lending Services, Barr Smith Library
rani.thompson@adelaide.edu.au

Winners of the Best Dressed Table Award celebrate

We couldn't quite fit all of the poem sent in by Rosario Huq, of Nightcliff Public Library (NT) but we had to share these lines as we're sure there were lots of kids in lots of libraries feeling just the same during National Simultaneous Storytime!

*The kids, they got busy,
They had so much fun,
Wearing feathers and dots
And smiles when done.*

Rosario Huq
Nightcliff Library
r.huq@darwin.nt.gov.au

THANKS TO

Rod Clement

and

HarperCollins Publishers Australia

cyber(smart:)

© Rod Clement, 2010, from Feathers for Phoebe by Rod Clement. Published by HarperCollins Publishers Australia.