

THE TECHNOLOGY OF THE INDUSTRY

Throughout this issue of INCITE we've seen just how much impact emerging technology is having on the business of working in, and running, library and information services. Now it's time to tell us how you are handling that challenge. The August issue of INCITE will feature technology in all its forms – this is your chance to shine a light on your successful innovations and solutions

It's time to tell us what you think. Check the guidelines for contributions at www.alia.org.au/publishing/incite/guidelines.html and email your stories and images to incite@alia.org.au. Please note all images must be high resolution (at least 300dpi) and sent separately as jpg files. Images may be reproduced in print and online.

Deadline for stories is July 1, 2012.

National Year of Reading 2012

A love of reading writ large

Are you keeping up with all the events and activities being reported for the National Year of Reading? There are so many to enjoy and so much inspiration. Here's a current favourite with the National Year of Reading team, from Cummins Community Library, in South Australia's Eyre Peninsula.

Nearly 500 students and community members gathered on the Cummins School oval as part of a state-wide Read Mob in March. They were there to participate in a (freeze and read) for five minutes to acknowledge the importance of reading in our lives for both work and leisure.

The group was seated on the oval in the shape of the National Year of Reading logo, which had been specially marked out. Everyone brought along their book, while pilot Jim Holman and photographer Tiff Firth circled overhead to capture the spectacle.

Get inspired, get involved and let us know what you're doing for the National Year of Reading – and sign up for the enewsletter at www.love2read.org.au. There's lots more to come – what will you do?
