A BIG THANK YOU FROM THE NT

Congratulations to John Chisholm, Librarian, St John’s College and Cathy Hilder, Manager Public Library Services, Northern Territory Library, on being presented Silver Pins at a recent function at Il Lido Restaurant. Silver Pins are awarded to ALIA personal Members who have served a minimum of five years or more on ALIA Group Committees.

John Chisholm was awarded a Silver Pin in recognition of a host of roles including committee membership of the ALIA Red Centre Group Committee (2004–2006), 2008 ALIA Biennial Conference Organising Committee, ALIA Top End Group Committee (2010–2011) and as Co-chair of Library Camp for the ALIA Access Conference (2009–2010).

Cathy Hilder has also served in multiple committee positions. Her Silver Pin recognises her service as Editor of the ALIA Top End Newsletter Interface (2007), as the NT representative on the ALIA Public Library Advisory Committee in 2008, on the Top End Symposium Organising Committee in 2009, 2011 and 2013 and as NT Project Coordinator for ALIA’s National Year of Reading in 2012.

A big thank you from all their colleagues goes to both Cathy and John for their contribution and for continuing to be active members of ALIA Top End. We’ve posted photos on our Facebook page at www.facebook.com/ALIATopEnd.
