

ALIA EVENTS

FOR THE DIARY

14 FEBRUARY 2016

Library Lovers' Day

The most romantic day for library lovers across Australia!

7 & 8 MARCH 2016

Early Literacy Summit

Hotel Realm, Canberra

Government, educators, researchers and early years service providers will break new ground in collaborative engagement around this most vital national priority – future generations with the literacy skills to fight disadvantage, and advance Australia's interests in the global knowledge economy. Brought to you by the Australian Library and Information Association and the Australian Public Library Alliance, hosted by journalist and presenter Jennifer Byrne, this is your opportunity to participate and help drive the national agenda.

23 – 29 MAY 2016

Library and Information Week

This week aims to raise the profile of libraries and information service professionals in Australia and gives libraries and information services the opportunity to showcase their resources, facilities, events, contacts and services through different programs and events to the community. This week is your chance to show your skills and your value to the community in a fun way!

25 MAY 2016

National Simultaneous Storytime

The campaign aims to encourage more young Australians to read and enjoy books. Now in its 16th successful year it is a colourful, vibrant and fun event that aims to promote the value of reading and literacy using an Australian children's book that explores age appropriate themes and addresses key learning areas of the National Curriculum for Grades 1 to 6.

29 AUGUST – 2 SEPTEMBER 2016

ALIA National 2016 Conference

Adelaide Convention Centre, Adelaide

With a strong theme of 'Engage, Create, Lead', we look forward to another opportunity to impress our Members, and supporters in 2016. ALIA provides the platform as a meeting point for all Library and Information professionals, from all sectors and all areas of Australia and the international community. The National Conference provides unparalleled opportunities to become stronger as professionals and as an industry with engaging programs and a forum to collaborate, network and build partnerships amongst our colleagues, peers, industry leaders and corporate partners.

And don't forget ...
