BRIGHT IDEAS

GET INVOLVED – 2016

As Members of ALIA, INCITE is your magazine. It's the place for you to share information and stories, discover further educational opportunities, network with your industry peers and find out what's happening in the LIS sector.

Why not contribute to INCITE for 2016? If you have something you would like to share with ALIA Members, simply email editor@incite.org.au. We're looking forward to hearing from you!

ISSUE	MONTH	THEME	COPY DEADLINE
1/2	January/February	Finding the innovation sweet spot Australian library leaders share what innovation means to them and how they incorporate new ideas, services and experiences into their library information services.	1 December 2015
3/4	March/April	Every Member an advocate: making your voice heard Good advocacy is way of influencing outcomes for your library service and a way of adding your voice to important debates. We share stories of lessons learned and success achieved.	2 February 2016
5/6	May/June	All things digital Keep up with new digital developments across the library sector as ALIA Members share their experiences of projects in their workplaces.	5 April 2016
7/8	July/August	ALIA National: What's happening in Adelaide and why you should be there 'Engage, Create and Lead' is the theme for our annual conference to be held next month. Get a preview of some of the exciting speakers on the program.	30 May 2016
9/10	September/October	Education and employment special: How you can stay at the top of your game with ALIA PD Lifelong learning is one of the cornerstones of our profession; see how others fit professional development into their busy days and how it can enhance your career.	30 August 2016
11/12	November/December	Future predictions for the LIS sector in Australia Global trends, early indicators and futuristic thinking can all guide where we are headed; learn how the LIS sector is adapting to new developments.	4 October 2016