

PRIZE WINNING

students graduating at CSU

ALIA Student Award:

Bachelor of Information Studies – Louisa Petrolo

ALIA Student Award:

Graduate Diploma Information Studies – Amy De Vries

ALIA Student Award:

Master of Information Studies – Cassandra Kohle

ALIA Student Award:

Master of Education (Teacher Librarianship)

– Janelle Elizabeth Moore

Institute of Information Management Prize

– Jeremy Stibbard

Margaret Jennings Award

(Australian Society of Archivists)

– Kerrie Peterson

SAGE Research Prize

– Catherine Gissing

Sigrid McCausland Prize

– Karen Harper

Cassandra Kohle

The School of Information Studies at Charles Sturt University (CSU) congratulates all the students who graduated from its courses in 2018. Special mention goes to those who were awarded the various prizes on offer for academic excellence, as listed left.

Cassandra Kohle, who graduated with Distinction and the ALIA Student Award for the Master of Information Studies, gave an excellent speech for the Vote of Thanks in the December ceremony in Wagga Wagga, on behalf of all the graduates.

Also of note was the graduation at this ceremony of one of the school's PhD students, Dr Barry Archibald, who was supervised by Dr Mary Carroll and Dr Peter Rushbrook.

MARY ANNE KENNAN AALIA

Senior Lecturer

School of Information Studies

Charles Sturt University

PHILIP HIDER AALIA

Head of School

School of Information Studies

Charles Sturt University

ALIA PD
Professional Development Scheme

Join the
ALIA PD Scheme

membership.alia.org.au/pdinfo