

CRIMES (PROCEDURE) AMENDMENT BILL 1987

NEW SOUTH WALES

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Explanatory Note relates to this Bill as introduced into Parliament)

The object of this Bill is to amend the Crimes Act 1900 so that—

- (a) an accused may make admissions of fact and consent to the tender of affidavit evidence prior to (not only, as at present, at) trial (Schedule 1 (1));
- (b) indictable offences may be dealt with under sections 476 and 501 of the Act if the charges concerned relate to property or money of higher monetary values than are presently applicable (the amounts being increased from $10,000 to $15,000 and $2,000 to $5,000, respectively) (Schedule 1 (2) (b) and (3) (c));
- (c) indictable offences mentioned in the following sections of the Act may be dealt with by a Local Court under section 501 of the Act, without the consent of the accused:
  - section 125 (Larceny by bailee);
  - section 156 (Larceny by clerks or servants);
  - section 157 (Embezzlement by clerks or servants);
  - section 158 (Destruction, falsification of accounts etc. by clerk or servant);
  - section 159 (Larceny by persons in Public Service);
  - section 160 (Embezzlement etc. by persons in the Public Service);
  - section 178A (Fraudulent misappropriation of moneys collected or received);
  - section 178BA (Obtaining money etc. by deception);
  - section 178BB (Obtaining money etc. by false or misleading statements);
  - section 184 (Fraudulent personation);
  - section 185 (Inducing persons by fraud to execute instruments);
  - section 185A (Inducing persons to enter into certain arrangements by misleading etc. statements etc.);
  - section 186 (Taking reward for helping to recover stolen property);
  - section 188 (Receiving etc. where principal guilty of felony);
